

Amazing Minds is the Pearson Longman development programme that supports ELT teachers in their search for professional and personal growth. Through a series of carefully designed seminars on current issues at the core of the ELT profession, Amazing Minds gives teachers the skills and training required to enhance their personal and professional lives.

What is Amazing Minds?

Amazing Minds, the Pearson Longman Teachers' Development Programme, is a training programme that offers teachers worldwide:

1. A support network where teachers grow and thrive both at a professional and personal level.
2. A standardised professional development programme for the mobile teacher of today, that is accessible around the world.
3. A training package that addresses both the microcosm of the classroom and the more general issues that affect morale and job satisfaction among ELT professionals worldwide.

Our aim with Amazing Minds Pearson Longman Teachers' Development Programme is to:

1. Empower and inspire teachers by helping them feel excited about what they do and their profession.
2. Help teachers talk confidently about what they do as professionals with administrators, parents, students and other teachers in their countries and abroad.
3. Give teachers the professional skills required to become the best teachers and professionals they can be, by helping them stay abreast of the rapidly evolving field of ELT.
4. Allow teachers to keep in touch with current educational thinking in order to maintain and develop good practice.
